

Q1. Who are Rakhains?

Ans. The Rakhains are a small tribe who originally came from Arakan and settled in different areas of Chattogram Hill Tracts and Patuakhali.

Q2. Describe the people of the Rakhain tribe.

Ans. The skull of Rakhains is round, their nose is flat and they have black hair. They are usually short in height and their complexion is light brown.

Q3. What religion do the Rakhains follow?

Ans. The Rakhains follow Buddhism and, also like other tribes, they believe in magic and supernatural powers.

Q4. Name the major festivals of the Rakhains.

Ans. The major festivals of the Rakhains are the birth anniversary of Gautam Buddha, Spring festival, Baishakhi, Maghi Purnima, Prabarana Purnima and Sundrey.

Q5. What is Sundrey?

Ans. Sundrey is the Rakhains' greatest community festival during the occasion of Chaitra Sankranti for three days.

Q6. What is the main profession of the Rakhains?

Ans. The main profession of the Rakhains is farming. They also weave and make salt and molasses.

Fill in the blanks:

- a) The Rakhain men wear lungi and fatua
- b) Both Rakhain male and female members have equal rights.
- c) The rate of literacy in the Rakhain community is very high.

True / False

- a) Rakhain children start their education at Khyangs. (True)
- b) The Rakhain women wear sarees. (False)
- c) The Rakhains originally came from Mongolia. (False)

Nawab Faizunnesa

Q1. Who was Nawab Faizunnesa Choudhurani?

Ans. Nawab Faizunnesa Choudhurani was a zamindar, a supporter of female education, a social worker and poet.

Q2. Which place did Faizunnesa become zamindar of?

Ans. Faizunnesa became the zamindar of Pashchimgaon in Cumilla in 1883.

Q3. What did Faizunnesa do for the women?

Ans. Faizunnesa established the first female school in Cumilla. She also established a hospital and a charitable dispensary for women.

Q4. How did Faizunnesa get the title of 'Nawab'?

Ans. In 1889, Queen Victoria awarded Faizunnesa the title of 'Nawab' for her social work.

Fill in the blanks:

- a) Faizunnesa founded a madrasha and later upgraded it to a college.
- b) Faizunnesa became the first woman in Bengal to receive the title of Nawab

True / False

- a) Faizunnesa was awarded the Ekushey Padak, in 2004. True
- b) Faizunnesa was the zamindar of West Bengal. False